Dear Dr.

ARTICLE SUBMISSION FOR *AKADEMIKA JOURNAL

I am pleased to submit an original research article entitled “Spiritual Education for Street Children at Sekolah Bimbingan Jalinan Kasih, Kuala Lumpur” by Farah Hamizah Samsuddin and Haziyah Hussin for consideration for publication in the Journal of Southeast Asia Social Sciences and Humanities.

We previously uncovered the role of a Malaysian education institution for street children in spiritual education. The manuscript builds on our earlier study to find the role of the institution in providing spiritual education to help the street children to increase their inner strength and emotional stability problem.

In this manuscript, we show that the education institution plays an important role in implementing spiritual education to street children through a modified curriculum and flexible teaching and learning practices as well as high teacher professionalism. We believe that this manuscript is appropriate for publication by Akademika because of its impact on the sociology of street children and religious education.

We confirm that this manuscript has not been published elsewhere and is not under consideration by another journal.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

DR. HAZIYAH HUSSIN
