

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Lim Hui Woan is a senior lecturer in Speech Sciences at Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM), Malaysia. Her main research and clinical interests include typical and atypical child language development by local bilingual and multilingual Malaysian children who use a variety of languages and dialects such as Mandarin, English, Malay, Tamil, Cantonese and Hokkien.

Lee Soon Tat completed his B.Sc. in Speech Sciences (2014) at Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM), Malaysia. He is currently working in Hospital Sultan Abdul Halim as a full-time speech-language therapist and a part-time speech-language therapist at Well Physiotherapy, Occupational Therapy & Speech Therapy Centre.