Dear Prof./Dr.,

ARTICLE SUBMISSION TO JURNAL SAINS KESIHATAN MALAYSIA

On behalf of the authors, I herewith attach a manuscript for review as Short Communication in Jurnal Sains Kesihatan Malaysia, titled "The effect of burned liver on the size and development of Megaselia scalaris (Loew) (Diptera: Phoridae) – a preliminary assessment and implications in forensic entomology."

This manuscript has not been previously published elsewhere and in compliance with the ethical requirements and regulations of the funding institution, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (National University of Malaysia). There is also no issue regarding conflict of interests between the authors and the institutions.

All authors contribute to the article and have approved the article to be true.

I appreciate your kind consideration to review this manuscript.

Yours sincerely,

R.M. ZUHA, PhD.
